5 Tuscany Truffle Hunt

The sun-soaked hill towns of central Italy offer what to many is the quintessential Italian experience. Slow down and enjoy the pace of the countryside so you can savor the delights that this region offers.

Private Villa in Tuscany

Enjoy a seven-night stay for up to four people in a two-bedroom, three-bath villa in the Cortona countryside. Surrounded by olive groves and overlooking the peaceful valley of Val' di Chiana, you'll experience the best of both worlds with an ideal location for a private getaway within a short distance to the town of Cortona. The outdoor terrace offers beautiful views and a perfect spot for barbecues and dining al fresco. The garden and private swimming pool allow guests to relax under the Tuscan sun. This charming Tuscan villa has maintained many of its authentic original features without compromising modern comfort. Amenities include air conditioning, heating, WIFI access, satellite TV, daily maid service, and a washing machine.

Truffle Hunting

Participate in a unique and desirable experience to learn about the seduction of truffles in a beautiful medieval hamlet set in the Tuscan woods. Join expert hunters with their trained dogs on a half-day adventure as they show you how to find and dig up truffles. After, you will visit a small truffle museum at a local farm and learn how to use and preserve the precious produce. Savor a marvelous lunch with local truffle-based dishes and delicious wines all prepared and served by the farmhouse owner.

The peak truffle hunting season is March to November, but since this is a natural reserve, there is ample harvest year-round. If you prefer, an alternate experience or tour can be substituted, such as walking or biking tours, cheese making with tastings, or cooking classes.
