114 Marcassin Vineyard Pinot Noir 2010

Marcassin Vineyard has a true talent for creating the most flavorful wines for an incredible tasting experience. This 2010 bottle of Pinot Noir is rated 98 points by Robert Parker. Deep plum/ruby/purple-colored to the edge, it offers notes of boysenberries, mulberries and a hint of raspberries. The site's minerality is well-positioned in the full-bodied flavors which continue the blue fruit invasion, so to speak, but with more forest floor and composty notes, and a complex, northern Cote de Nuits Vosne-Romanee or Morey-St.-Denis personality expressed in the gorgeous fruit.

125 2017 Edouard Delaunay Chassagne-Montrachet

This wine is a gorgeous pale gold in color with an initial nose that is redolent of lemon and citrus, bergamot, mango, white flowers – jasmine in particular – and pollen. It starts off taut and lively on the palate, developing considerable roundness. There are flavors of fresh herbs (a hint of chervil and basil) and lime open up to notes of peach and barley sugar, followed by almond.

Donated by: Jeff & Catherine Austin, Tad & Martha Glenn

Estimated Value: $115

126 2012 Château Léoville Barton Saint-Julien

The Barton family's passion for wine is reflected in the elegance and consistency of Château Léoville Barton. This wine has a refined nose of black cherry and blackberry, with a hint of mocha. Powerful and fleshy, but with a pure, velvet side, it has delicate and silky tannins, excellent length.

Donated by: Jeff & Catherine Austin, Tad & Martha Glenn

Estimated Value: $130

127 2014 Robert Craig Mount Veeder Cabernet Sauvignon

A powerful, dense wine, the 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon Amentet Vineyard oozes Veeder character. Graphite, scorched earth, lavender, plum, blood orange, and crème de cassis are all finely rendered in this superb, intensely mineral Cabernet Sauvignon. Powerful and yet refined, with tremendous energy, the 2014 is a winner from Robert Craig.

Donated by: Jeff & Catherine Austin, Tad & Martha Glenn

Estimated Value: $90

128 2014 Silver Oak Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon

Silver Oak's 2014 Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon has a garnet color with a ruby red rim and bluish tint. It has an alluring nose of chocolate-covered strawberries, vanilla, nutmeg, truffle, and sage. On the palate, it has a broad yet delicate entry and offers cranberry flavors. These flavors are complemented by raspberry and pluot with savory black olive characters on the mid-palate. The wine finishes with silky tannins, cedar and bramble flavors with excellent length and return. This wine is drinkable upon release, but given proper cellaring conditions can be enjoyed through 2038.

Donated by: Jeff & Catherine Austin, Tad & Martha Glenn

Estimated Value: $90

129 1996 Alexander Murray Glentauchers Single Malt Scotch

Today Glentauchers Distillery remains a key player for multiple blended whisky brands, and is rarely seen as a single malt whisky. Its pear-shaped copper stills, distinctly visible from the road, produce a notable fruity spirit with an almost wine-like viscosity. Relatively long fermentation and slow distillation at play here.

Donated by: Jeff & Catherine Austin, Tad & Martha Glenn

Estimated Value: $130

136 Chappellet Wine Quartet

- Chappellet Napa Valley Zinfandel 2016:
Made from dry-farmed, old-vine grapes, this robust mountain-grown Zinfandel is pure pleasure in a glass, with head-turning aromas of dark plum, brambly blackberry, and briary spice, as well as hints of cedar and toasty oak.
- Chappellet Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon 2008:
A wonderful Cabernet, dry and classically structured, notable for elegance and smooth power. It is rich and complex in blackberry and cherry, chocolate and cedar flavors, wrapped into smooth tannins. The 2008 blend is 77% Cabernet Sauvignon, 9% Malbec, 9% Merlot, and 5% Petite Verdot.
- Chappellet Napa Valley Cabernet Franc 2012:
Thick and rich in black sugarplum, this memorable Pritchard Hill-grown red is lovely and bold, velvety in texture with a softness to the firm, integrated tannin. Dried herb and spice provide memorable seasonings amidst a larger theater of dark chocolate, leather, clove and pepper.
- Chappellet Napa Valley Malbec 2016:
This alluring wine displays concentrated aromas of blackberry and pomegranate, with subtle layers of tropical flowers, orange zest, anise and oak-inspired notes of nutmeg and clove. Hints of roasted coffee linger on the long, supple finish. It benefits from decanting two hours before serving.

Donated by: Ellen & Ed Bernard

Estimated Value: $220

137 California Cabernet Sauvignon Trio

- Newton Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon 2014:
The wine opens with dark, briary aromas of black currants and mulberries laced with aniseed and hints of violet. The palate is well proportioned with plush, juicy flavors. Dense, chocolaty tannins provide the framework for a persistent finish.
- Mt. Brave Mt. Veeder, Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon 2012:
The 2012 growing season was near perfect, with ideal spring budbreak and warm, steady days balanced by cool nights. The 2012 Mt. Brave Cabernet Sauvignon opens with notes of blueberry, rose petals and violets, which are balanced by a cleansing minerality and silky tannins.
- Kelham Vineyards Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley:
According to the producer's website: "This Cabernet is classified reserve because of the vineyard site. At Kelham Vineyards, the belief in fine, complex wine is a product of the vineyard site and cellaring. This viticultural treasure at the base of the Mayacamas Mountain Range is perfectly suited to produce ultra-premium grapes."

Donated by: Ellen & Ed Bernard

Estimated Value: $215

138 Italian and French Wines

- Paolo Scavino Barolo 2015:
The Paolo Scavino 2015 Barolo is made with a complicated blend of fruit from seven vineyard sites spread clear across the appellation from Castiglione Falletto, Barolo, Serralunga d'Alba, and more townships. This is a compact and darkly saturated wine with bold blueberry and blackberry fruit. The wine shows a steady center of gravity in this warm, fruit-driven vintage.
- Les Héritiers du Comte LAFON Mâcon-Milly-Lamartine 2016:
Deeper aromas of white peach, citrus fruit, menthol, flowers and medicinal herbs offer moderate depth of texture but harmonious acidity, giving the dry lemon, lime, spice and herb flavors more structure and grip. This wine is long on the aftertaste, displaying an herbal complexity.

Our 120 singers perform throughout the Mid-Atlantic region and internationally in ensembles of various sizes as the Symphonic Chorus, Chorus, and Chamber Singers. Choral Arts toured to England in January 2020, following previous tours to France and Spain. Baltimore Choral Arts provides a number of thoughtful and impactful music education programs that serve youth in and around Baltimore, including CoroLAB, Vocal Fellows, Student Composer Project, and the Christmas for Kids concert.

Baltimore Choral Arts enjoys partnerships with acclaimed collaborators and is invited regularly to perform with prominent orchestras, such as the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra and the Maryland Symphony Orchestra. Choral Arts has collaborated with artists including Sweet Honey in the Rock, Chanticleer, Dave Brubeck, the King's Singers, Anonymous 4, Peter Schickele, Kathy Mattea, and others. Baltimore Choral Arts' innovative programs often feature both choral and orchestral music, staged theater works, and mixed media enhancements.

- 2020 Emmy Award nomination for the 2019 Christmas with Choral Arts broadcast

Anthony Blake Clark

Anthony Blake Clark enjoys a reputation as one of the freshest young voices in classical music. During his tenure with Baltimore Choral Arts, he has received rave reviews for their own programs, prepared them for performances with the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, led them on an enthusiastically received UK tour that culminated in the prestigious invitation to perform Mahler's 8th Symphony with the City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra, and made his television conducting debut with ABC's Christmas with Choral Arts holiday production. Clark is also Director of Choral Activities in The George Washington University's Corcoran School of Art and Design, where he conducts the University Singers and Women's Ensemble, and mentor student conductors. His university choirs have performed at the Kennedy Center, the National Cathedral, and St. Nicholas Church in Prague.

Clark has prepared choruses for esteemed maestri Sir John Eliot Gardiner, Simon Halsey, Marin Alsop, and Mirga Gražinytė-Tyla, for renowned ensembles including the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, Berliner Philharmoniker, City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra, and Rundfunk Chor Berlin. At Lincoln Center, he was one of several conductors of David Lang's 1,000-voice the public domain, and again for John Luther Adams' In the Name of the Earth. Clark has served as cover conductor for the National Symphony Orchestra, assisting conductors including Ton Koopman, Gianandrea Noseda, and Christoph Eshenbach.

A native of Texas, Clark studied composition at Baylor University School of Music and received his Master's in Choral Conducting at the University of Birmingham (UK). His compositions have been heard across the U.S. and Europe.
